This conference will equip you to better understand, explain, and confidently live out your faith in today's post-Christian society. Enjoy a family-friendly weekend filled with inspiring speakers, practical teaching, worship, fellowship, camp activities, great food trucks, and opportunities to connect with believers from across Atlantic Canada and beyond.

Meals, and limited on-site accommodations are available at the expense of the participant.

Conference Speaker

Andy Steiger is the founder and president of Apologetics Canada, dedicated to helping Christian communities grow in their faith and share their hope.

Andy has travelled extensively and has presented at various venues and published widely from children's books to the Supreme Court Law Review. Between his 20 years of pastoral experience, a Masters of Arts from BIOLA University (Los Angeles, CA) and a PhD from the University of Aberdeen (Scotland), Andy brings both experience and research to his work.

Andy will be speaking on "Christianity in a Post-Christian Society"
